

Fashion designing & block printing

The Livelihood project was inaugurated on 15 November 2016, Women from the nearby communities will be trained in tailoring and block printing courses. It has become a reality by the sheer strength and joy of giving by the alumnae of the College. Mrs Usha Krishna, founder of Kaivalam Foundation, is facilitating the project. The future plans are to have a production unit at SMCDRIVE, Shanthi Bhavan.
