

Dr. Sr. Jasintha Quadras attended the meeting, at Rome, Italy in November 2017, of the Executive Committee of the International Federation of Catholic Universities, (IFCU) in her capacity as its Vice-President.

As part of this, Dr. Sr Jasintha Quadras also participated in the International Congress of Refugees and Migrants in a Globalized World: Responsibility and Responses of Universities. On 4 November, she had the privilege and honour of meeting Pope Francis at the concluding session of the conference while presenting her views on its last panel.

Pope Francis highlighted the need for Catholic universities to contribute in three areas of their competence: research, teaching and social promotion.

The Pope made his comments in the Consistory Hall of the Apostolic Palace, in audience with the members of the International Federation of Catholic Universities (IFCU), at the conclusion of the International Conference Migrants and Refugees in a Globalized World: Responsibility and Responses of Universities, which took place in Rome from 1 to 4 November 2017, at the Pontifical Gregorian University.

Dr Sr Jasintha Quadras on

“TEACHING, DOING RESEARCH AND ACTING WITHIN A NETWORK”

REGIONAL VOICES

Responses and Responsibilities of Catholic Institutions in the Asian Region in the context of Refugees and Migrant Issues

